

Why Become A Member?

Respect, Recognition and Representation

A good reputation is worth its weight in business. BIA membership is an opportunity to gain recognition and respect in the community and within the industry. As a BIA member, the Association represents you by promoting the industry and continually striving to enhance the quality of life by providing quality housing. The Association represents the local construction industry on Capitol Hill, the State House and local government entities, to attain favorable and progressive legislation for the industry.

Valuable Money Saving Programs

Members of the Association can take advantage of many discount program from various Local, State and National businesses including a workers compensation discount program, discounts on office supplies, gas savings, health insurance programs, PCs, rental cars, delivery service, GM vehicle discounts and many others.

Membership Directory

This annual directory puts members' names, addresses, phone numbers and other valuable information at your fingertips.

Industry Promotion

To help you sell your product and/or service the BIA sponsors promotional events such as two Home and Garden Shows, Tour of Homes, and various social activities. Advertising opportunities are available to you through the monthly newsletter, the BIA website, membership directory, and event sponsorship.

Educational Opportunities

Learn about current trends and what the future holds for the industry through meetings, seminars and the National Association's Annual Convention and Exposition.

Networking Opportunities

BIA membership is an opportunity to build a network of professionals in the industry by sharing ideas with other builders, subcontractors, suppliers and service firms. These opportunities are in the form of monthly membership meetings, golf outings, and other social gatherings.

Local, State and National Membership

As part of your membership, you automatically become a member of the local BIA, the Ohio Home Builders Association (OHBA) and the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB).
